ADULT DISIPLESHIP TO HOST FILM SERIES

Adult Discipleship is hosting a film series and discussion in September, October, November and December with the theme Rooted in Love: Eradicating Systemic Poverty.

The first film, The Florida Project, is now available in the church office. In this movie, six-year-old Moonee who lives with her mother in a cheap motel in Orlando, FL, is the face of poverty. The film is also available on Netflix.

The discussion is September 26 via Zoom at noon! Feel free to join us with your lunch in hand for an interesting discussion.

E-BLAST DEADLINE:

The deadline for submissions for the E-Blast is 2:00 pm every Wednesday.

CHAPEL CHAIR CAMPAIGN

Over the years, how many hours do you think you've sat in one of these chapel chairs which after 45 years are tired and need to be reupholstered. You can help! To fund this effort, the Session has approved the Chapel Chair Campaign where folks can purchase a "chair". The goal is to raise $5,000 dollars, and we ask you to consider how many hours these chairs have literally supported you in meetings, worship, choir rehearsal, or classes and multiply that by 50 cents or more. The fund will also be used to purchase light-weight conference tables with storage racks. Send your check to the office marked "Chair".

RECYCLE BOTTLES AND CANS FOR FOOD PROGRAM

September 18th, 12p.m. to 1 p.m. Bring your rinsed recyclable bottles and cans to Rose City Park Presbyterian Church to raise funds for the Northeast Emergency Food Program. Come to church parking lot at 44th and Sandy Blvd. Our teams will stuff them into the non-profit Blue Bags for Bottle Drop.

We plan to do this every odd numbered month on the third Saturday. So, you can plan ahead and help us feed our neighbors.

NEW MEMBER CLASS

Are you interested in exploring membership at Rose City Park Presbyterian Church? We will be scheduling a new members' class soon in the church library. Together we will discuss the meaning of membership as well as the history and theology of the Presbyterian Church. Please e-mail the office at office@rosesityparkpres.org or Paulette at paulette@rosecityparkpres.org to learn more.
